MAIN STREET PROJECT

Various organizations joined the main street group during the Christmas holiday to sing and raise money for the project. Organizations participating included the main street group, Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, Kappa Alpha fraternity, and individuals such as Kevin Skeen, Bill Creighton(shown with Santa on bottom right). Opposite page top left: Scott Young, Darrell Cook, and Aaron Clay were among the singers for the day.

The purpose of the main street project is to revitalize Buckhannon and Upshur County. There are hopes to attract new businesses and maintain present business. Most important is the hope to put pride back into the community. Among those on the board of directors is the president of West Virginia Wesleyan-Thomas Courtice.

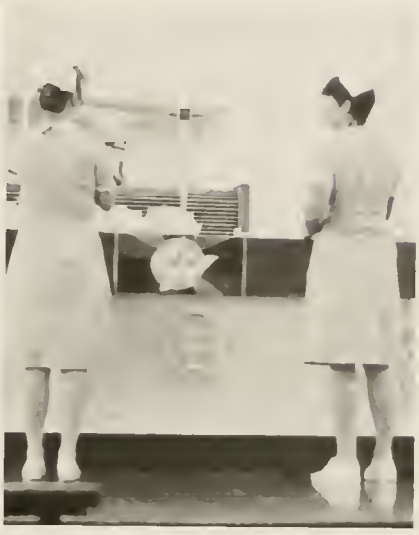
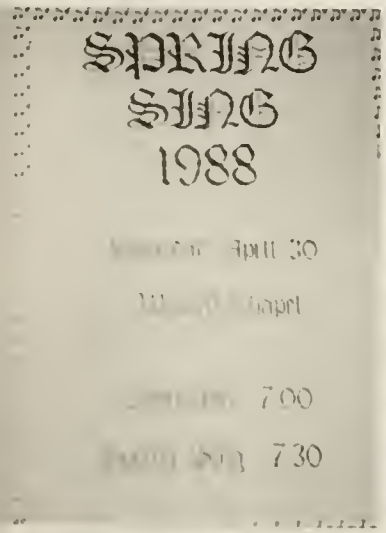
TRADITIONS





FRESHMEN ORIENTATION

"Can I help you?"

Orientation leaders help the freshmen class move into their dorm rooms. As parents and students unload their cars, they wonder how all their stuff will ever fit in the room. Parents ask if they have packed everything they own! The parent-student convocation was on saturday evening. Dean Bailey welcomed the incoming freshmen and their parents.

HOMECOMING WEEKEND

The theme for Wesleyan's homecoming this year was "The Gleam and Glitter of Hollywood." The Greeks designed banners and floats to ride in the parade. The afternoon was spent at the homecoming football game where the queen and her court were introduced to all alumnae and friends.

CAPPING

"This is Nursing"

It is spending long hours with dog-eared books and instant coffee . . .
It is remembering what constitutes aseptic technique, pros and cons of cholesterol in the diet and the function of the liver . . .
It is caring: caring for a very special person known as a patient . . .
It is keeping in mind that everything we do is for the patient's benefit . . .
It is satisfaction from conscious effort . . .
It is watching with awe as a baby is born and consoling a frightened, lonely child . . .
This is caring for and serving our fellow man . . .
This is life and death . . .

This is Nursing!

Fine Performance Of Play

Wesleyan theatre's production of Kaufman and Hart's "You Can't Take It With You" was a superb performance.

There were several highlights. One memorable scene was the last scene in act one. Everybody in the Sycamore family was doing what they really do, when Mr. and Mrs. Kirby walked in. Recall Martin Vanderhof played by Kyle Minor, gnawing on a tomato. Recall DePinna, played by Bill Campbell, donned in toga, gartered socks, smoking a pipe while holding a discus-like plate. Penelope Sycamore, played by Barbara Lewis was painting the romanized DePinna. And the drunken actress Gay Wellington, played by Brenda Burroughs, was out cold on the couch. Ed Sycamore, played by Rob Kleinedler, hacked away at his xylophone while Essie Sycamore, played by Cherie Chambers, balleted to the noise. Ed Sycamore, played by Anthony Basham, was tapping the ingredients into a fireworks rocket. Alice Sycamore, played by Azareem Zavareei, was talking to her fiance Tony Kirby, played by David Tackett.

And while this was happening, Rheba the cook, played by Cynthia Bayne, was letting Wall Street tycoon and wife Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, played by Doug Miller and Laurie-Ann Opuszynski, into the home.

It was an enjoyable performance.

EUROPEAN TOUR

Jazz Band

Jazz Ensemble Plays

The West Virginia Wesleyan Jazz Ensemble is performing tonight at the Greenbrier Hotel in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia as part of the hotel's Big Band Weekend.

The Jazz Band is sharing the performance with James Madison University's Jazz Band tonight.

The Greenbrier Hotel is a world famous resort. It is often the site of exclusive conventions and has been a favorite meeting place and vacation resort of several presidents, including Franklin D. Roosevelt and Dwight Eisenhower.

The West Virginia Wesleyan Jazz Ensemble traveled to Hungary, Romania, and Austria on a concert tour from July 10-30, 1987. After a week of intense rehearsal, the group left Buckhannon and headed for New York City. The group had a stop over in Princeton, New Jersey and played a concert there.

Bright and early the next morning the group headed for JFK airport. After many delays and hours of waiting, the group was on their way!

After landing in Vienna, the band traveled to Budapest, Hungary. The highlight of the five days there was a recording session for Hungarian Radio.

The next week was spent in Romania. The hand traveled to many towns and villages including Sibiu, Brasov, and Timisoara. Here the audiences were very excited to hear American music. The band members were surrounded by fans asking for pins, pencils, or any token of America that could be given to them. They even wanted the band members' autographs!

After this, the group returned to Hungary for a few days and then it was off to Vienna, Austria. Here the hand participated in the "Blue Danube Jazz Festival." Other performers in the festival included Dizzie Gillepsie and Herbie Hancock. The band's free time was spent shopping and taking in all the wonderful sights of Vienna. One day the group traveled into the beautiful countryside of Austria and played a concert on the terrace of the Lake Restaurant Allentsteig.

On July 30, the band left Vienna airport and headed for home. After landing, an exhausted band collected their equipment, loaded it on a hus and started on the long drive home.

CONCERT CHORALE

Europe

Summer fun the European way . . .

The concert chorale consists of 30-50 members. Auditions for concert chorale are held in the spring. The group goes on many tours throughout the year.

The yearly spring tour involves 10-14 days over spring break. The group has taken 4 European tours in the last 6 years.

These pictures depict the beautiful cities of the '87 summer European tour. The chorale spent many hours performing throughout Europe. However, the students had plenty of time to experience the wonderful architecture and culture of many cities throughout Europe.

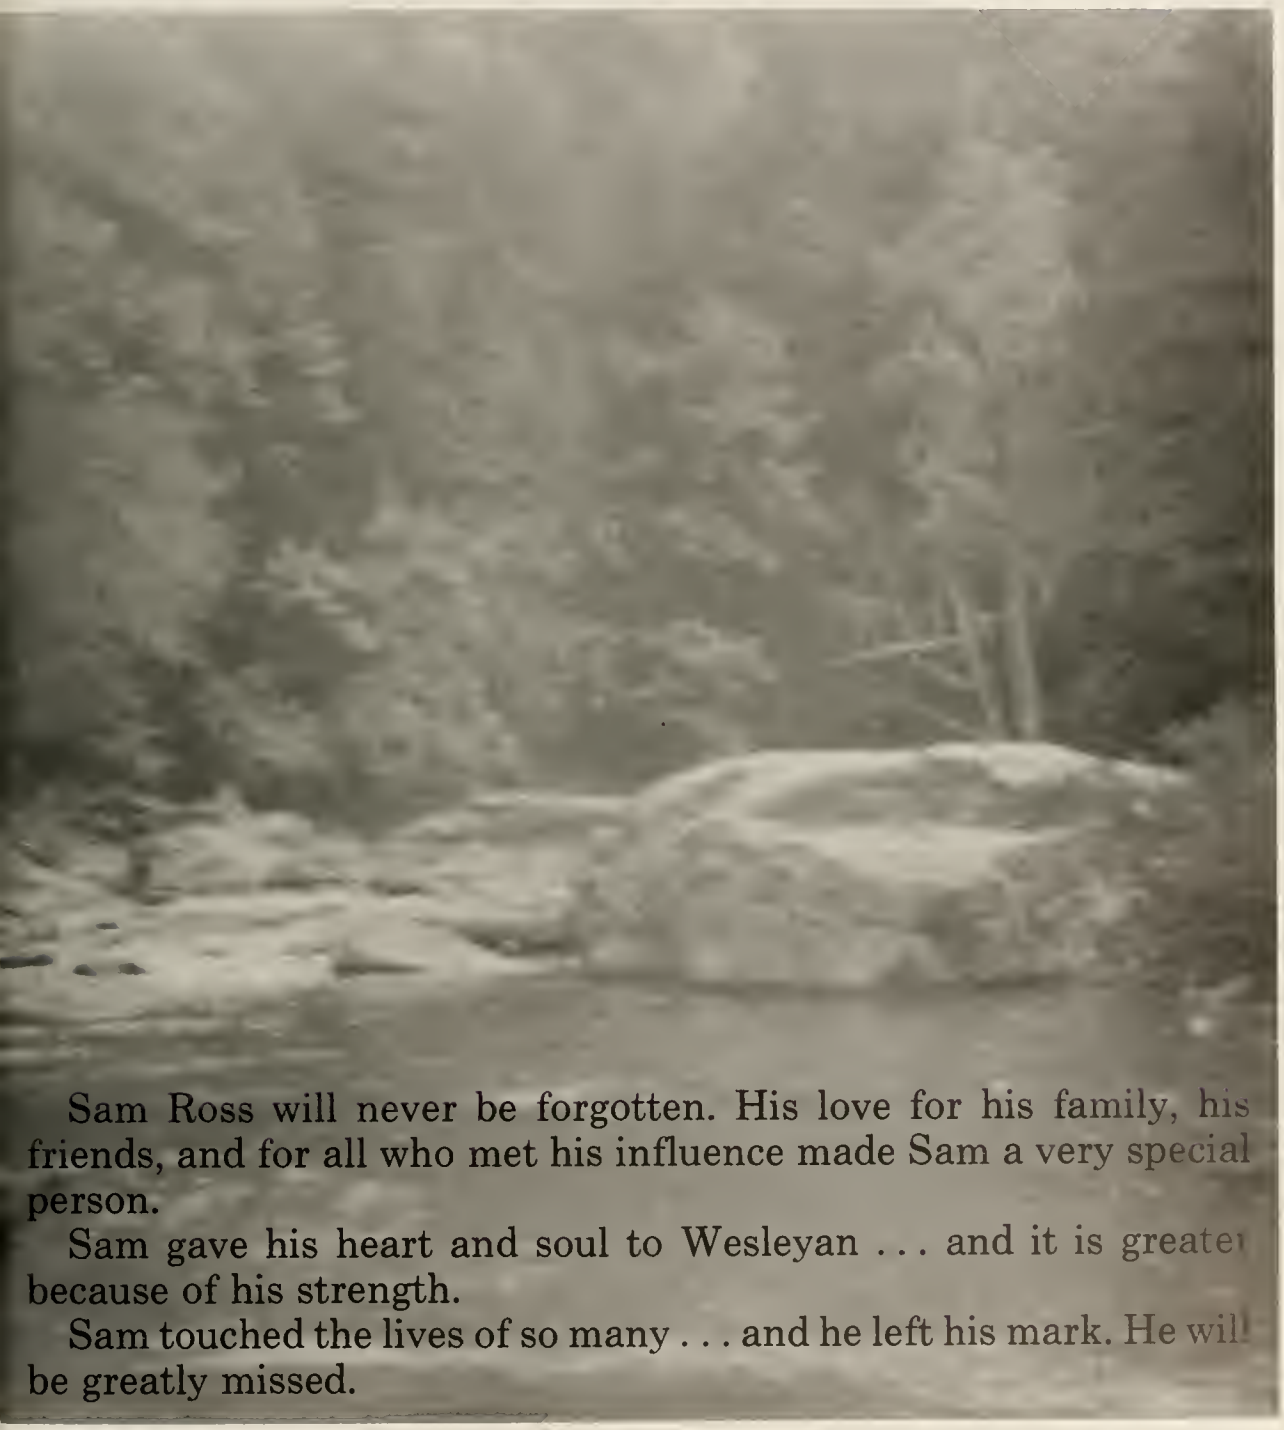
In Memory of:
SAMUEL MORGAN ROSS
December 30, 1930-July 29, 1988



Sam Ross will never be forgotten. His love for his family, his friends, and for all who met his influence made Sam a very special person.

Sam gave his heart and soul to Wesleyan . . . and it is greater because of his strength.

Sam touched the lives of so many . . . and he left his mark. He will be greatly missed.

GRADUATION DAYS

Today we'll start a new life, and we'll say our last goodbyes to all the friends we've grown to love with whom we've laughed and cried.

Remembering the fun and laughter, the problems and the fears, and watching all our memories grow throughout our college years.

The memories of the dances, and the new friends that we've met, vacations, teachers, talking, and exams we'd rather forget.

Yes, college days are precious but brief, where all your dreams come true; It is not the end but the beginning of a life we'll start anew.

— Jay Shefstad —

FRIENDS ARE FRIENDS FOREVER

The 1987-88 school year was one of many special moments. It saw the girls basketball team with the best record in twenty some years and a winning football, soccer, and men's basketball team. For me, it saw the most memorable moment in my life . . . my engagement to my high school sweetheart, Ensign Marc Steiner. With all these memories to depict, I truly had a great time working on this year's book.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of those who helped to get this book out on time especially Jenean Pinnell whose work on other sections besides her own was greatly appreciated. Thanks to Elizabeth Boocks for her fantastic ideals for the underclassmen section, to Elizabeth Fugitt for a great job with the organizations and honoraries, and to Trish Correll for being a terrific assistant. I also want to thank my roommate, Marie Lane, for all her support and for putting up with me and all my yearbook complaints(ZLAM!).

In addition, I want to thank the Wesleyan Community for four wonderful years of learning and entertainment. Hope you all enjoy the yearbook!

Sincerely,

Deanna R. Shrader
